

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

Nov. 19, 1888.

To The Superintendent—

Storage for Standard

Silver Dollars will be exhausted before Saturday 24th. Will it not be judicious to ask for the transfer of one million to the Treasury, the order to issue at once, in order that we may fill the vault we now have and then ship the surplus? It is not possible to exactly fix the time of filling that vault.

Respectfully

C. F. Johnson

Mint. U. S.

Phila. Pa.

March 19. 1888.

Mr. H. Cobb.

Cashier

Storage for St. S. Lollie
will be exhausted

before Saturday 24th.

Suggests asking for a transfer of one million to Treasury.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 151

[Abstract:] Storage for St'd. S. Dolls. will be exhausted before Saturday 24th suggests asking for a transfer of one million to Treasy.

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,
Superintendent's Office,
March 19, 1888

To the Superintendent

Storage for standard silver dollars will be exhausted before Saturday 24th. Will it not be judicious to ask for the transfer of one million to the Treasury, the order to issue at once, in order that we may fill the vault we now have and then ship the samples? It is not possible to exactly fix the time of filling that vault.

Respectfully,
Cobb
Cash.